

Citing Art from the Internet

Artist / Photographer (if available) _____

Description or title of image _____

Medium of the work _____

Date of image (if available) _____

Title of larger website _____

Date of Download _____

Address of larger site _____

Artist if Available. "Description or Title of Image." Date of image.
Online image. Title of Larger Site. Date of download.
<<http://address.website.org>>.

Gogh, Vincent Van. "Shoes." 1888. Online image. Artcyclopedia. 3 Oct. 2013. <http://www.artcyclopedia.com/masterscans/van-gogh-shoes-mid.html>>

Clip Art - It would not be unheard of to put a tiny credit line below or alongside the picture stating where it came from. [You wouldn't be "citing" it -- it doesn't go in a reference list -- but if it's clip art, it's public domain and there's no requirement to give a credit.

[<http://www.wordbanter.com/showthread.php?t=118055>]